

Anne Boleyn

second wife of Henry VIII and mother of Elizabeth; executed in 1536

twinkl.com

Anne of Cleves

fourth wife of Henry VIII

twinkl.com

beefeater

nickname for a guard of the Tower of London

twinkl.com

Catherine Howard

fifth wife of Henry VIII; accused of treason and executed in 1542

twinkl.com

corset

underwear worn by women, designed to support and shape the body

twinkl.com

doublet

a tight-fitting, quilted jacket worn by men

twinkl.com

Edward VI

only son of Henry VIII; crowned king at only nine years old

twinkl.com

Elizabeth I

last monarch of the Tudor period; reigned from 1558 to 1603

twinkl.com

execute

to kill someone as a punishment

twinkl.com

farthingale

a hooped skirt worn by women under their skirts to create a bell shape

twinkl.com

French hood

a round, embellished bonnet worn by women

twinkl.com

gallows

a wooden structure used to hang those who had been sentenced to execution

twinkl.com

Henry VII

the first monarch of the House of Tudor;
reigned from 1485 to 1509

twinkl.com

Henry VIII

one of the most well-known British kings;
reigned from 1509 to 1547

twinkl.com

hose

a leg covering for men

twinkl.com

Jane Seymour

third wife of Henry VIII and mother of Edward; died in 1537

twinkl.com

Katherine of Aragon

first wife of Henry VIII; had one daughter, Mary

twinkl.com

Katherine Parr

sixth and final wife of Henry VIII

twinkl.com

kirtle

a long dress with detachable sleeves

twinkl.com

lute

a stringed instrument with a deep, round back

twinkl.com

marchpane

a popular confectionery for the rich made from ground almonds, sugar and rosewater

twinkl.com

Mary I

daughter of Henry VIII; reigned from 1553 to 1558

twinkl.com

pottage

thick stew made from meat, vegetables and grains

twinkl.com

ruff

neck collar worn by men and women

twinkl.com

scythe

tool used in farming for cutting down and collecting grains

twinkl.com

sumptuary laws

laws created to regulate spending on food and clothes

twinkl.com

thatch

roof made from straw or reeds

twinkl.com

treason

crime of acting against your country

twinkl.com

wattle and daub

a method for making walls using wooden strips or sticks covered with clay and dung